ELECTORS FLOCK TO SANTA ANA POLLS DURING AFTERNOON

At Noon, Precincts Here Had Cast From Thirty to Forty Per Cent

Although the morning vote was not as heavy as had been expected, this afternoon voters are coming into the polls rapidly, and by 4 o'clock this afternoon the automobiles that have been doing a lot of hustling will begin to hum for the afternoon's wind-up.

The heaviest vote is expected between 4 o'clock and 6 o'clock. That the dyes are thoroughly organized was indicated today by the fact that they had checkers at the polls, and plenty of automobiles at work for them.

In some of the precincts 40 per cent of the vote had been cast by 1 o'clock. If another 40 per cent came in during the afternoon, those precincts will be casting a big vote. As instances of how the vote was going, at noon today No. 18 had cast 147 out of 346 registration; No. 1, 96 out of 256; No. 2, 100 out of 245; No. 3, 68 out of 238; No. 11, 65 out of 220; No. 8, 98 out of 264.

It is freely predicted that the vote is going well above 75 per cent of the registration. Reports from all over the county show that the voting will be heavy.

EVERETT, Wash., Nov. 7.—From four to ten of the Industrial Workers of the World who were victims of the gun battle with armed guards at Everett Sunday, were drowned in the bay and their bodies have not been recovered, according to the belief of witnesses, testifying before the coroner's jury today. The waters are still being dragged. Citizens will take steps tomorrow to settle the shingle weavers' strike, which is at the bottom of the trouble between the Industrial Workers and the officers of the law.

EVERETT, Wash., Nov. 7.—Responsibility for the pitched battle between 250 members of the Industrial Workers of the World, on board the steamer Verona, and a posse of 150 Everett citizens at the city dock, was placed upon the men on the boat by the coroner's jury, which investigated the death of the two Everett citizens killed in the riot.

All but two of the witnesses called testified that the first shots were fired from the steamer Verona, on which the invading Industrial Workers came from Seattle.

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 7.—That the bodies of no less than twelve Industrial Workers of the World, shot overboard from the steamship Verona during Sunday's battle, are lying at the bottom of Everett harbor, is the belief of Captain George R. NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—America will cast a record vote for president if an Federal authorities tomorrow following the discovery today of irregularities at the polls.

Confessions in which prominent politicians are named are said to be in the hands of Federal inspectors following several minor arrests. The grand jury may be called tomorrow to check further crookedness. Today Hinton Claybaugh had given all available information to the city and county authorities and had urged them to action.

R. H. Harris, assistant United States attorney, went to one precinct in the Twenty-third ward, Mayor Thompson's ward. At 7 minutes before the polls opened at 8 a. m., it is reported that he found ballots already in the box. The election judges explained that several workmen who were hurrying to work had been allowed to vote before opening time, every vote cast in this precinct may be thrown out.

Other irregularities are reported in the Second, Third, Eighteenth and Twenty-first wards, where large numbers of negroes and foreigners are registered. Money was paid, according to the reported statements of persons arrested in these wards.

Indications point to a record vote here. At 11 a. m. 515,000 votes had been cast, which is nearly two-thirds of the registered vote.

Early predictions that 90 per cent of the registered vote would be cast were reiterated at noon by the election commissioners.

In Chicago 750,000 votes had been cast up to an hour before the polls closed. Election commissioners estimated the total registration here at 800,000.

BAY STATE CASTS RECORD VOTE

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—The polls closed at 4 o'clock in most cities. Reports from all over the state show that a record vote was cast.

WOMAN VOTE TO SWELL TOTAL IN ILLINOIS

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—By far the largest vote in the history of Illinois elections is expected to be cast today by reason of the fact that women for the first time voted for president and vice president. Promise of fair weather throughout the state was also counted on by party managers to aid in bringing about this result.

Approximately 2,000,000 voters have registered in the state and party leaders estimated that close to 1,800,000 votes would be recorded, of which number between 600,000 and 700,000 would be cast by women. The women, however, enjoy only partial suffrage, being permitted to vote for president and vice president, but not for state officers, except trustees of the State University.

Chicago, with its more than 800,000 voters—men and women—started the voting in the state, the polls here opening at 6 a. m. and closing at 4 o'clock this afternoon. Downstate the polls opened at 7 a. m. and will remain open until 5 p. m.

To guard against fraudulent voting in Chicago and other populous centers of the state, civic organizations were prepared to aid the party and election managers by sending watchers and detectives into suspected wards and precincts.

In Chicago principal interest, aside from the presidential race, centered in the three-cornered contest for state's attorney, among those running being Maclay Hoyne, Democrat (incumbent); Harry Miller, Republican, and W. A. Cunneen, Socialist.

Governor Dunne, Democrat, and Frank O. Lowden, Republican, candidates for the governorship, claimed most attention, aside from the presidential contest, throughout the state.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 7.—A number of ideas which he said had proved successful in large eastern cities were recommended as desirable in Los Angeles by James Washington Pierce, recently returned after a year in New York, at a meeting of the Los Angeles branch of the California Music Teachers' Association.

He detailed the success attending the holding of pageants and the work of singing societies with regard to creating greater interest in music.

RIVERSIDE AUTO AGENT HURLED TO DEATH

RIVERSIDE, Nov. 7.—Veering out of the highway to escape collision with a heavy wagon, Edward Tuggy, well-known Riverside automobile agent, lost his life when the car he was driving skidded and turned turtle, pinning him beneath.

Tuggy suffered internal injuries which proved fatal within a short time after the accident. He leaves a wife and five children. The accident occurred early today on the road between Riverside and Wineville. According to Tuggy's statement, the wagon carried no light.

unusually heavy run of balloting is any indication.

Reports gathered by the United Press from all parts of the country showed a higher vote up to noon than ever before recorded, the voting in many instances aggregating as much as half the total registrations.

Ideal weather in almost every state aided in bringing out the balloters. In the pivotal states, New York, Illinois, Indiana and Ohio before noon the run to the polls showed that the "silent vote" on whose word depends the outcome of the election was probably speaking in a loud voice.

MASSACHUSETTS, Nov. 7.—Complete returns in this town give Wilson twenty-two and Hughes twelve.

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—Seventeen of twenty-one enfranchised Chinamen in Boston voted the straight Democratic ticket, according to John Donovan, who controls the "Old Cove" section of this city.

RIVERSIDE AUTO AGENT HURLED TO DEATH

RIVERSIDE, Nov. 7.—Veering out of the highway to escape collision with a heavy wagon, Edward Tuggy, well-known Riverside automobile agent, lost his life when the car he was driving skidded and turned turtle, plunging him beneath.

Tuggy suffered internal injuries which proved fatal within a short time after the accident. He leaves a wife and five children. The accident occurred early today on the road between Riverside and Wineville. According to Tuggy's statement, the wagon carried no light.

Reports gathered by the United Press from all parts of the country showed a higher vote up to noon than ever before recorded, the voting in many instances aggregating as much as half the total registrations.

Ideal weather in almost every state aided in bringing out the balloters.

In the pivotal states, New York, Illinois, Indiana and Ohio before noon the run to the polls showed that the "silent vote" on whose word depends the outcome of the election was probably speaking in a loud voice.

PAVING IS ORDERED IN NORTHEAST S. A.

FIRST STEP TO GET A BRIDGE IS TAKEN

Merchant Protective Laws Proposed, One Against Dishonest Advertising

The City Trustees last night ordered crushed rock and oil paving on half a dozen streets in the northeast part of the city.

They discussed an ordinance to make it a misdemeanor for a merchant to advertise goods falsely.

A license of $300 a quarter or $10 a day for an itinerant business is proposed.

Committee is named to take preliminary steps toward getting a concrete bridge on North Main.

At the meeting of the City Trustees last night paving with crushed rock and oil was ordered upon a number of streets east of French, south of Washington avenue and west of the S. P. In the last eight months most of the streets in that section of the city have been converted from dirt streets to crushed rock pavement, and the council concluded that for the protection of the work already done and to "finish up the job" the unpaved streets in that section should be paved.

Exception was made of the blocks across which the Salt Lake railroad will pass, the council believing it best not to have that paving done till the railroad is in.

Trustee Tubbs stated that he had been over the section with Trustee Greenleaf, and Tubbs outlined the paving proposed, as follows: On Vance between Lacy and Garfield; on Garfield between Vance and Wellington; on Lacy between Wellington and Washington; on Poinsettia between Fourth and Washington; on Garfield between Sixth and Fifth; on Porter between Fourth and Sixth.

"The paving on Garfield will hit the Lutheran church again," said Tubbs, "and I for one, to help it out. Greenleaf and I will give $5 apiece, and I think the rest of this board will give that much toward that paving."

On Tubbs' motion and by the unanimous vote of the board, the paving was ordered.

On Maryatt's motion, the same paving was ordered on Mortimer between Fifth and Sixth and between Fruit and Stafford.

Main Street Bridge
The necessity of having a new concrete bridge on North Main was again emphasized.

COMB SAGE TEA INTO GRAY HAIR

Darkens Beautifully and Restores Its Natural Color and Lustre At Once

—Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use preparation improved by the addition of other ingredients, costing about 50 cents a large bottle, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and lustrous and you appear years younger. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—Advertisement.

Pasadena Expert Favors Removing Loose Top Rock

Loose crushed rock on top of streets paved with crushed rock and oil ought to be removed.

John Boyer, street superintendent of Pasadena, says so.

Beyer is a recognized authority on crushed rock and oil, and he ought to know.

Recently, acting upon Beyer's suggestion, Street Superintendent James O'Brien removed surplus rock on Minter street between Fruit and French streets.

"Thereupon," said City Trustee George McPhee at the meeting of the city trustees last night, "O'Brien had the property owners in his hair. To get at the best thing to be done, O'Brien wrote to Beyer to get his statement in writing."

The letter written by O'Brien to Beyer follows:

O'Brien's Inquiry
Santa Ana, Cal., Nov. 3, 1916.
Mr. John Boyer,
Street Supt.,
Pasadena, Cal.

Dear Sir:—When you and Mr. Chapman visited Santa Ana, if you will recall to mind when we were driving over our newly rock and oil paved streets, and especially on Minter street, you, or at least we understood you to say, that there was more fine rock on top of the last coating of oil than was for the best for the making of a good street.

Banking on your authority and your experience in this rock and oil road making, I took steps to remove with a road broom the loose rock fully intending at the time to replace rock on spots where oil may show up in case there should come hot enough weather to move the oil. Some of the residents on this street are now up in arms and are very much inclined to think that I got in where I or the City had no right to do.

Now, Mr. Byers if you feel that it is not asking too much from me and some of our City Trustees, we would appreciate it more than I can express if you would drop me a line giving us your opinion on this matter, which I think will in no wise be used to any discredit to you, it will help me in checking one of these unmanageable storms that sometimes arise where there is not a cloud to be seen in the skies.

This is a list of questions I wish to ask you:
Did you take notice of the rock and oil pavement on the new streets and on Minter street?
Did you make the remark that there appeared to be too much loose rock on it?

Did you say to me that if you were me you would sweep the most of it off, and when it began to get greasy to put more on?

Reason for this, to let travel and sunshine get at the rock that was directly on top of the last coat of oil.

Trusting that I may hear from you by Monday a. m., I beg to remain,

Yours respectfully,
JAMES O'BRIEN,
Street Supt.

Beyer's Reply
The reply received from the Pasadena street superintendent follows:

Pasadena, Cal., Nov. 4, 1916.
Mr. James O'Brien,
Supt. of Streets,
Santa Ana, Cal.

Dear Sir:—I am certainly astonished that there should be any objection to the removal of the surplus material on the oil macadam streets we inspected, while at your city. The grinding effect of traffic, over the surplus screenings that cannot possibly be taken up by the oil, is certainly no benefit to the street and very objectionable on account of the dust nuisance. However, should any oil show up later on the surface, it will be a small matter to put on enough screenings to take up the oil.

My candid opinion is that less screenings, when the streets are completed, would be for the benefit of the work. It is our custom to remove all surplus material after the street has been in use for two or three weeks, and find we get the best results by so doing.

Very respectfully,
JOHN BEYER,
Supt. of Streets.

After reading the letters to the City Trustees, McPhee said that Beyer is a big man in the paving business, so big that Seattle borrowed him from Pasadena for two weeks.

Trustee J. W. Tubbs said that the city board had never officially accepted any of the newly paved streets, and he was not certain that the city had any right to enter on the street and carry away any of the material. Further, he said he saw no reason for picking out Minter street for the work. Discussion brought out the fact that some of the streets at Pasadena have cleared surfacing in the center of the street only. Crushed rock and oil paving there had been down five years and showed no wear.

two ways of getting out of the building. Building Inspector Ash said he told the architect, Opp, that the law required two ways, either two stairways or a stairway and a fire escape, but the building was not so arranged.

J. W. McCormick, owner, said the building was built so that it was almost impossible for fire to shut off the one stairway. He asked that no action be taken until such time as he might build on the lot adjoining. The matter was referred to Tubbs and Greenleaf.

A. D. Pyatt was appointed fire driver to succeed Ike Fields, resigned.

McPhee reported that he and Tubbs bought a team for $325 from William Mills.

Has a Prospect
Maryatt reported he had a prospect for a dog-catcher. He said McCordia offered a pound and wanted to know what the city would pay for catching dogs that had no licenses. Maryatt was continued on the committee to further consider the matter. Visel urged that something be done soon to get rid of the crop of stray dogs.

Maryatt said that the corner of Sixth and Broadway might be fixed up as a public camp ground. No action was taken.

Strict Enforcement
After some discussion, it was ordered that strict enforcement of the specifications for cement sidewalks and curbs be required, and faulty work be looked out for.

Proposals to lay sewers 500 feet north on Santiago from Santa Clara and to lay 1000 feet on Artesia were continued until Sewer Superintendent Reid returns from the East.

A petition for gravel and oil on Olive between Fourth and Sixth was returned to the signers.

Street Superintendent O'Brien reported that two or three small buildings and fences are in an alley east of Broadway between Seventeenth and Eighteenth. Property owners will be notified to move them.

Honest Advertising
An ordinance was proposed to make it a misdemeanor with fine between $25 and $200 to advertise for sale, by newspaper, handbills or otherwise, goods that were not as represented.

McPhee was strongly for the ordinance, saying it would head off fly-by-night concerns that bring in old stocks of goods. The ordinance was given first reading.

First reading was also given an ordinance fixing the license for itinerant concerns at $10 a day or $300 a quarter, payable in advance. This ordinance was drawn by City Attorney Scott and Attorney Forgy for the M. & M. Tubbs said he was in favor of the ordinance, though he said it would be difficult to make a showdown as to whether the man was itinerant or permanent.

McPhee said that something should be done to protect local bakers, who are going to live up to the bread-weight law strictly. He said that eight Los Angeles concerns deliver bread here. He thought those concerns ought to be made to pay a license.

Visel said that he doubted if it is advisable to go too strong on licensing. He said the outside concerns ship goods here because there is a local demand for them.

workman's compensation insurance law. A letter from the state board reported that there would be a rebate of not less than twenty-five per cent on last year's premium. The city's premium was about $1500.

McPhee said that the restrictions about the state insurance department are such that so far the city had been unable to collect anything for injuries incurred. Sanders was hurt at the noon hour, and the state would not recognize his claim for a dislocated shoulder. Another man was laid off ten days, but under the law he must be off two weeks, or he gets nothing.

Given a Permit
S. H. Finley was given a permit to lease the building at 410 East Fourth to the French Laundry.

The Southern Counties Gas Company was given a permit to erect three concrete poles at First and Minnie.

The Civics Club was given the use of the city council room for the afternoon of the third Saturday of each month.

Geo. H. Fisher was granted a jitney license.

The clerk was instructed to draw a warrant for $310, which is the city's county taxes for its sewer farm.

Plans Accepted
The board accepted plans and specifications for covering West Chestnut, West Pine and West Highland, west of Flower street, with crushed rock.

The board will meet next Monday night.

Monthly Reports
The monthly reports showed 125 arrests in October, most of them for traffic offenses, 25 for drunkenness.

The city recorder collected $245 in fines for infractions of city ordinances and $249 for traffic offenses. The building inspector showed 39 permits issued in October, aggregating $39,590.

HARD WORK IS RULE FOR ROYAL CHILDREN

LONDON—Long before the war was even thought of, Queen Mary of England brought up her large family with as strict attention to economy as if she were the wife of a bank clerk with an income of $1,000 a year.

When Prince Henry, the king's third son, was at school in Broadstairs, he came under the scissors of a hair-cutter, "when you and your brothers are at home you have your hair cut by the court coiffeur."

"Oh, no!" answered the prince. "Indeed we don't, he is much too expensive for us."

All King George's sons have been taught by their mother to knit, darn, sew on buttons and cobble shoes. As soon as he was old enough to use tools with safety, the Prince of Wales learned to half-saw his boots and one of the first presents he received from his father was an iron last and a set of shoemaker's tools.

The queen is constantly knitting and sewing and long before the war she was nicknamed by the ladies of the court, "Knitting Mary."

Princess Mary would make an invaluable wife to a settler in the far west. She has been brought up to sew, scrub, cook, milk cows, and perform all the duties of a dairy maid. She is an intrepid horsewoman and can groom and saddle her horse.

All the royal children have been taught swimming, skating, fencing and riding. They all speak French and German, and now Princess Mary, who also speaks Spanish and Italian, in addition to French and German, is spending what little spare time her mother permits her to have in learning Russian.

BURGLAR GETS NOTHING FROM TUSTIN SEARCH

Store and Post Office Entered, But No Money Found By the Visitor

Last night a burglar broke into the Tustin post office and into Charles Artz's store at Tustin, but he went away empty-handed.

So far as Postmaster Phinney could determine nothing was stolen from the post office. Entrance was gained by cutting a screen and prying open a window on the side of the post office. A desk inside the office was pried open, but no money was found in a box in which there was money when the place was robbed about ten months ago. Some papers were thrown about, but none was missing.

The store was entered after a rear window had been pried open. The money drawer was found open and empty. Artz stated to Deputies Iman and Maxwell, who made an investigation for the sheriff's office, that so far as he can determine nothing was taken from the store.

An attempt was made to enter the Tustin Drug Company store. A screen at a rear window was taken off, and an attempt was made to jimmy the window. However, the window was securely nailed down, and was not opened. The burglar gave up the attempt.

SHACKLETON VISITS L. A. ON WAY TO HELP STRANDED COMPANIONS

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 7.—Bound for Ross Island, in the Antarctic, where he hopes to effect the rescue of ten members of the crew of his ship, the Aurora, who were left stranded on the island when the Aurora was blown out to sea by a hurricane, Sir Ernest Shackleton, the British explorer, arrived in Los Angeles.

He was hopeful that his rescue mission would meet with success, although he admitted it might take many months or even a year to reach the party. He said everything depended on the weather. If favorable conditions are encountered, he said, Ross Island might be reached from Wellington, New Zealand, in a few weeks.

The members of the marooned party, he said, had a plentiful supply of provisions and could hold out for a year if necessary.

The explorer was accompanied by Capt. Frank Worsley, the British naval officer who was in charge of the ship Endurance on the ill-fated Antarctic expedition trip attempted by Sir Ernest Shackleton. The Endurance was sunk. Capt. Worsley and twenty-eight men of his crew being marooned on Elephant Island.

After reading the letters to the City Trustees, McPhee said that Beyer is a big man in the paving business, so big that Seattle borrowed him from Pasadena for two weeks.

Trustee J. W. Tubbs said that the city board had never officially accepted any of the newly paved streets, and he did not care to do so until they had any right to enter on the street and carry away any of the material. Further, he said he saw no reason for picking out Minter street for the work.

Discussion brought out the fact that some of the streets at Pasadena have cleared surfacing in the center of the street only. Crushed rock and oil paving there had been down five years and showed no wear.

Two ways of getting out of the building. Building Inspector Ash said he told the architect, Opp, that the law required two ways, either two stairways or a stairway and a fire escape, but the building was not so arranged.

J. W. McCormick, owner, said the building was built so that it was almost impossible for fire to shut off the one stairway. He asked that no action be taken until such time as he might build on the lot adjoining. The matter was referred to Tubbs and Greenleaf.

A. D. Pyatt was appointed fire driver to succeed Ike Fields, resigned. McPhee reported that he and Tubbs bought a team for $325 from William Mills.

Has a Prospect
Maryatt reported he had a prospect for a dog-catcher. He said McCordia offered a pound and wanted to know what the city would pay for catching dogs that had no licenses. Maryatt was continued on the committee to further consider the matter. Visel urged that something be done soon to get rid of the crop of stray dogs.

Maryatt said that the corner of Sixth and Broadway might be fixed up as a public camp ground. No action was taken.

Strict Enforcement
After some discussion, it was ordered that strict enforcement of the specifications for cement sidewalks and curbs be required, and faulty work be looked out for.

Proposals to lay sewers 500 feet north on Santiago from Santa Clara and to lay 1600 feet on Artesia were continued until Sewer Superintendent Reid returns from the East.

A petition for gravel and oil on Olive between Fourth and Sixth was returned to the signers.

Street Superintendent O'Brien reported that two or three small buildings and fences are in an alley east of Broadway between Seventeenth and Eighteenth. Property owners will be notified to move them.

Honest Advertising
An ordinance was proposed to make it a misdemeanor to advertise for sale, by newspaper, handbills or otherwise, goods that were not as represented.

McPhee was strongly for the ordinance, saying it would head off fly-by-night concerns that bring in old stocks of goods. The ordinance was given first reading.

First reading was also given an ordinance fixing the license for itinerant concerns at $10 a day or $300 a quarter, payable in advance. This ordinance was drawn by City Attorney Scott and Attorney Forgy for the M. & M. tubbs said he was in favor of the ordinance, though he said it would be difficult to make a showdown as to whether the man was itinerant or permanent.

McPhee said that something should be done to protect local bakers, who are going to live up to the bread-weight law strictly. He said that eight Los Angeles concerns deliver bread here. He thought those concerns ought to be made to pay a license.

Visel said that he doubted if it is advisable to go too strong on licensing. He said the outside concerns ship goods here because there is a local demand for them.

workman's compensation insurance law. A letter from the state board reported that there would be a rebate of not less than twenty-five per cent on last year's premium. The city's premium was about $1500.

McPhee said that the restrictions about the state insurance department are such that so far the city had been unable to collect anything for injuries incurred. Sanders was hurt at the noon hour, and the state would not recognize his claim for a dislocated shoulder. Another man was laid off ten days, but under the law he must be off two weeks, or he gets nothing.

Given a Permit
S. H. Finley was given a permit to lease the building at 410 East Fourth to the French Laundry.

The Southern Counties Gas Company was given a permit to erect three concrete poles at First and Minnie.

The City Club was given the use of the city council room for the afternoon of the third Saturday of each month.

Geo. H. Fisher was granted a jitney license.

The clerk was instructed to draw a warrant for $310, which is the city's county taxes for its sewer farm.

Plans Accepted
The board accepted plans and specifications for covering West Chestnut, West Pine and West Highland, west of Flower street, with crushed rock.

The board will meet next Monday night.

Monthly Reports
The monthly reports showed 125 arrests in October, most of them for traffic offenses, 26 for drunkenness.

The city recorder collected $245 in fines for infractions of city ordinances and $249 for traffic offenses. The building inspector showed 39 permits issued in October, aggregating $30,530.

HARD WORK IS RULE FOR ROYAL CHILDREN

LONDON—Long before the war was even thought of, Queen Mary of England brought up her large family with as strict attention to economy as if she were the wife of a bank clerk with an income of $1,000 a year.

When Prince Henry, the king's third son, was at school in Broadstairs, he came under the scissors of a local barber, "I suppose," said the hair-cutter, "when your and your brothers are at home you have your hair cut by the court coiffeur."

"Oh, no!" answered the prince. "Indeed we don't, he is much too expensive for us."

All King George's sons have been taught by their mother to knit, darn, sew on buttons and cobble shoes. As soon as he was old enough to use tools with safety, the Prince of Wales learned to half-sole his boots and one of the first presents he received from his father was an iron last and a set of shoemaker's tools.

The queen is constantly knitting and sewing and long before the war she was nicknamed by the ladies of the court, "Knitting Mary."

Princess Mary would make an invaluable wife to a settler in the far west. She has been brought up to sew, scrub, cook, milk cows and perform all the duties of a dairy maid. She is an intrepid horsewoman and can groom and saddle her horse.

All the royal children have been taught swimming, skating, fencing and riding. They all speak French and German, and now Princess Mary, who also speaks Spanish and Italian, in addition to French and German, is spending what little spare time her mother permits her to have in learning Russian.

BURGLAR GETS NOTHING FROM TUSTIN IN SEARCH

Store and Post Office Entered, But No Money Found By the Visitor

Last night a burglar broke into the Tustin post office and into Charles Artz's store at Tustin, but he went away empty-handed.

So far as Postmaster Phinney could determine nothing was stolen from the post office. Entrance was gained by cutting a screen and prying open a window on the side of the post office. A desk inside the office was pried open, but no money was found in a box in which there was money when the place was robbed about ten months ago. Some papers were thrown about, but none was missing.

The store was entered after a rear window had been pried open. The money drawer was found open and empty. Artz stated to Deputies Iman and Maxwell, who made an investigation for the sheriff's office, that so far as he can determine nothing was taken from the store.

An attempt was made to enter the Tustin Drug Company store. A screen at a rear window was taken off, and an attempt was made to jimmy the window. However, the window was securely nailed down, and was not opened. The burglar gave up the attempt.

SHACKLETON VISITS L. A. ON WAY TO HELP STRANDED COMPANIONS

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 7.—Bound for Ross Island, in the Antarctic, where he hopes to effect the rescue of ten members of the crew of his ship, the Aurora, who were left stranded on the island when the Aurora was blown out to sea by a hurricane, Sir Ernest Shackleton, the British explorer, arrived in Los Angeles.

He was hopeful that his rescue mission would meet with success, although he admitted it might take many months or even a year to reach the party. He said everything depended on the weather. If favorable conditions are encountered, he said, Ross Island might be reached from Wellington, New Zealand, in a few weeks.

The members of the marooned party, he said, had a plentiful supply of provisions and could hold out for a year if necessary.

The explorer was accompanied by Capt. Frank Worsley, the British naval officer who was in charge of the ship Endurance on the ill-fated Antarctic expedition trip attempted by Sir Ernest Shackleton. The Endurance was sunk. Capt. Worsley and twenty-eight men of his crew being marooned on Elephant Island.

BUSINESS BLOCK ON W. FOURTH THREATENED BY FIRE

Blaze Discovered In Model Bakery Plant, 317 West Fourth, About 9:30

Fire in the rear part of the Model Bakery, at 317 West Fourth street, last night threatened a whole business block and did damage to the amount of about $100. The origin of the blaze is a mystery. The bakery equipment was not injured in the least. The building belongs to Tom Wilson, proprietor of the cigar stand on the Row, corner. It is insured.

The blaze was discovered at 9:30 by Dad Slocum of the Libby Motor Company at the corner of Fourth and Broadway, who telephoned the fire department.

The flames had broken through the top of the roof immediately over the bake-oven and could be seen for many blocks. The department ran a hose from the hydrant at the corner of Fourth and Broadway to the rear of the bakery by way of Birch street and had the flames out in a few minutes.

S. A. Matthews, owner of the bakery, has no idea as to how the fire originated. There had been no fire in the oven since 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

The top of the oven was used as a sort of store house, where boxes, cans, etc., were thrown. It is possible that the heat from the oven had started a slow fire in the trash stored over it.

The wooden roof and sides were burned and will have to be replaced. Nightwatchmen John Ryan and Matthews carried a few things from the bakery room in to the front of the store, before they could determine just where the fire was.

False Alarm This Morning
A phone call from the plant of the Union Oil Company about 7:30 o'clock this morning sent the department on a hurried run to that point. A grass fire back of the plant had gotten from under control, and it was feared that the flames would eat their way to the big oil tanks and cause serious damage. The blaze was gotten under control before the department arrived.

TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS

Eat Less Meat If You Feel Backache or Have Bladder Trouble

—Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels: removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush out the body's uric waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.—Advertisement.

AT THE RUSSIAN IMPERIAL ARMY HEADQUARTERS

NOTE—Following is the fourth of a series of five articles by Simms, giving a close up of Russian royalty and the way of life and work at Imperial Army Headquarters. This series concludes Mr. Simms' special assignment to Russia and he has now returned to France.—Editor.

BY WM. PHILIP SIMMS
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
IMPERIAL HEADQUARTERS, RUSSIAN ARMY, Oct. 4 (by mail).—From this place every day about half past twelve o'clock, over special wires, flash the orders of the Emperor and his chief of staff, Alexieff, to the generals commanding the 700 miles of front.

If you have eyes that can see through house-tops and brick walls, you will see scores of uniformed officers poring over maps and plans; aides hurrying from one department to another; orderlies standing at ramrod attention back of busy generals; a Crown Prince learning how to govern; a Czar conferring with his staff. You will see all these important acts which send a half million men to the attack, to the fording of a stream, to the taking of an enemy redoubt. The clash of cavalry, the thunder of big guns, the offensives against Lemberg and Kovel and all the other places—all are controlled from here.

Yet, if you have the eyes of ordinary mortals, you see none of this and Grand General Headquarters, or the Stavka, as the Russians call it, is the deadiest, dullest place in all Russia.

Unless you have plenty of work to keep you occupied, this is no place for you. This is no health resort, no place for tired business men, no amusement center for neurotics and rouses. Everybody here has a job and he keeps at it and if you have none you are in for a rotten time.

Ordinarily about 20,000 people live here. Now, with the military, the population is about double this. Still the narrow, roughly cobbled streets are seldom crowded because most of the 40,000 people are busy inside. In the dingy shop windows one sees American tooth washes, American sewing machines, American typewriters, American bicycles and advertisements for American harvesting machines.

A long, one-story house of hewn logs, unpainted and weathered to a somber gray, back a little way from the main street, is by tradition the scene of a meeting between Katherine the Great of Russia and Emperor Frederick of Prussia in 1726. Now it is divided into two parts and a family lives in each.

A red brick "opera house" in the middle of the town, the house of the local governor wherein Czar Nicholas II now finds quarters with his 12-year-old heir, Alexis Nikolavich; a rather handsome Catholic church, several equally handsome Greek orthodox churches; the street market; the view from the terrace back of the Emperor's quarters, make up the principal sights of the place.

A long, very narrow street, between two rows of whitewashed stone buildings, whose roofs are almost low enough to be touched by the extended hand, looks inviting. Here are strange shops kept by very hairy men. Their wares are principally articles for the peasants—charcoal stoves, ropes, coarse cotton goods, shovels, boots, fur and near-fur caps, heavy coats and the like. As one looks with interest into a barlike place where "kvass," a Russian drink made from fermented black bread but non-alcoholic, one almost gets run over by a little car made by the man who made the Peace Party famous. In it were Russian officers.

Lunch at the officers' mess is the real break in the day here. Only it does not last long. General Alexieff seems to take. At 1:30 sharp he enters on the run, passes rapidly down a lane of officers standing at salute, seats himself at his table and the waiters begin to serve. In 35 minutes he rushes out again. He wastes not a minute.

Still one has time to take a look round, chewing as he looks. Down the hall a way is Captain McCall, the British attaché, the dapperest one of all. There is the French lieutenant, wearing a black monocle, and a French captain who has been twice wounded, according to insignia worn on his sleeve. Then there are the Belgian, Japanese and Portuguese. They are all very swell in their various uniforms and for a few minutes one gets the feeling that he is really at army headquarters and that there really is a world war going on, that there is a mighty European coalition.

Suddenly an orderly hands you your cap and cane and you find yourself in the street again. Tired from morning rambles, you hunt something more restful to do and suddenly, as you pass a kiosk, you spy among an array of newspapers and periodicals printed in Russian a paper-backed volume with this title, in English, upon it: "The Adventures of Sherlock Holmes." It was a heresy, but Sherlock entertained till dinner time. After that came a visit to one of the jammed movie theaters and then bed.

U. S. TO AUCTION SMALL FARM PLOTS

coffee tree looks a bit denuded.

The berries are stripped off and allowed to fall on the ground where they are raked up and carried away in baskets. The next step is to spread them out on an open cement court to dry in the sun.

When the berries are all shriveled and dried to the consistency of husks they are put through successive machines that husk them and separate the Mocha beans from the Java. They finally land in sacks ready to be shipped down to Santos and exported.

As you sip your Turkish, French, or U. S. A. coffee you may be almost sure it has a Brazilian past. For it is only by the different degrees and processes of roasting in the different countries to which it is sent that the good old native Brazilian bean becomes disguised as a terrible Turk or in true Parisian manner, starts a liaison with chicoree and becomes "cafe."

I have tried to make this coffee clear for you, to show you just where your coffee's bean. I hope it all has percolated.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NEWS NOTES FROM ORANGE CITY

ORANGE, Nov. 7.—Miss Hilda Kirchoff, whose wedding to Carl Gates of Mesa, Ariz., is announced for the near future, was honor guest at a pretty linen shower Saturday evening, given by her sister, Mrs. Will Porter, and Miss Alice Haynes at the Haynes home on South Center street. The affair was planned as a surprise. A very delightful evening was passed with games and social pastimes. Miss Kirchoff received many pretty marks of esteem from her friends, about fifteen being present. Refreshments were served as a concluding feature.

The Los Angeles Concordia team defeated the Orange Concordia Club team at baseball Sunday, the score being 9 to 7. The game was played on the Hinrichs diamond and developed into a free hitting affair in which the visitors had a slight edge. This game makes the third straight time the Los Angeles team has taken the measure of the locals.

The O. U. H. S. Debating club made a strong impression on the audience at the First Christian church Sunday evening, discussing various phases of the liquor question.

Old John Barleycorn was argued completely off his feet. When the youthful debaters got through with him the old man didn't have a leg left to stand on. His effect on the physical, mental, financial and moral side of humanity was gone into pretty thoroughly and some things brought to light that didn't exactly show to the advantage of the old reprobate.

Those who handled sides of the question were Misses Lucille Lamain, Vera Sherwood and Messrs. Roscoe Schaffert, Ray Gruenewald, Sidney Weinberg, Harold Everett, Gilford Rowland and Halford Thomas.

The Woman's Club met yesterday afternoon at the Colonial Theater. A wild bird song recital by Louise Carola Davis, accompanied by Eva Summer Schauer, was the program of the afternoon.

Louis F. Moulton was a guest Sunday at the home of Dr. C. J. K. Jones on South Glassell street. Mr. Moulton is owner of the Rancho Niguel, an old Spanish land grant of 20,000 acres, situated near El Toro, between the coast highway and the sea and bordering on the Laguna road.

Mrs. C. Wagner and two children of St. Louis, arrived Sunday evening for a visit with her sister, Mrs. K. V. Wolff. They expect to spend a year in Orange.

Street Superintendent Buchanan is preparing North Glassell street for its annual bath of oil and coating of gravel. The gravel has already been dumped.

WORLD GOLD POOL DEPOSITS, SWISS PEACE PLAN

Only Monetary Loss, Declares Savant, Will Bring True Respect For Treaties

ZURICH, Switzerland.—Dr. Oscar Busch, Swiss international lawyer of note, has a most ingenious suggestion for securing permanent peace in the world after the war. He would have every nation deposit a big amount of gold in an international fund, this bond to be forfeited by a government breaking the peace. Dr. Busch said: "One of the principal obstacles which prevent an early peace is the fact that the faith in the binding power of international treaties has been badly shaken during the present war."

"All of the belligerent nations have treated the existing treaties as scraps of paper and they know that new international agreements will be broken without a moment's hesitation as soon as they conflict with the interests and aspirations of one nation or another."

"Lasting peace is only possible if the civilized nations can be united into a 'peace trust' under the leadership of the states which have kept out of the present war. Every nation joining this trust would have to make a certain deposit in gold as a guarantee of its good faith. Five or ten dollars per head of the population would probably be sufficient."

"The gold trust fund thus created would have to be deposited in one or more of the neutral countries under the administration of a neutral commission. This commission would issue 'peace notes' against the gold deposited and turn them over to the depositors for circulation in their own countries."

"Should any nation start a war without an appeal to The Hague peace court or refuse to obey the decision of this tribunal the gold deposited by it would be confiscated and turned over to the attacked country. Thus the attacker would be punished doubly, because he would not only lose his deposit but also have to redeem the notes issued against it."

"To prevent a fall in value of the deposits it would become necessary to regulate the gold production internationally. Should any country become so rich in gold that it would not feel the loss of a few hundred million dollars seriously its deposit would have to be increased proportionately."

"The 'peace trust' is not an idle dream, but a very practical proposition to bring the world out of the present maelstrom of slaughter and destruction."

BUSINESS BLOCK ON W. FOURTH THREATENED BY FIRE

Blaze Discovered In Model Bakery Plant, 317 West Fourth, About 9:30

Fire in the rear part of the Model Bakery, at 317 West Fourth street, last night threatened a whole business block and did damage to the amount of about $100. The origin of the blaze is a mystery. The bakery equipment was not injured in the least. The building belongs to Tom Wilson, proprietor of the cigar stand on the Row. It is insured.

The blaze was discovered at 9:30 by Dad Slocum of the Libby Motor Company at the corner of Fourth and Broadway, who telephoned the fire department.

The flames had broken through the top of the roof immediately over the bake-oven and could be seen from many blocks. The department ran a hose from the hydrant at the corner of Fourth and Broadway to the rear of the bakery by way of Birch street and had the flames out in a few minutes.

S. A. Matthews, owner of the bakery, has no idea as to how the fire originated. There had been no fire in the oven since 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The top of the oven was used as a sort of store house, where boxes, cans, etc. were thrown. It is possible that the heat from the oven had started a slow fire in the trash stored over it.

The wooden roof and sides were burned and will have to be replaced. Nightwatchmen John Ryan and Matthews carried a few things from the bakery room in to the front of the store, before they could determine just where the fire was.

False Alarm This Morning
A phone call from the plant of the Union Oil Company about 7:30 o'clock this morning sent the department on a hurried run to that point. A grass fire back of the plant had gotten from under control, and it was feared that the flames would eat their way to the big oil tanks and cause serious damage. The blaze was caused under control before the department arrived.

TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS

Eat Less Meat If You Feel Backache or Have Bladder Trouble

—Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush out the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.—Advertisement.

AT THE RUSSIAN IMPERIAL ARMY HEADQUARTERS

NOTE—Following is the fourth of a series of five articles by Simms, giving a close up of Russian royalty and the way of life and work at Imperial Army Headquarters. This series concludes Mr. Simms' special assignment to Russia and he has now returned to France.—Editor.

BY WM. PHILIP SIMMS
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
IMPERIAL HEADQUARTERS, RUSSIAN ARMY, Oct. 4 (by mail).—From this place every day about half past twelve o'clock, over special wires, flash the orders of the Emperor and his chief of staff, Alexieff, to the generals commanding the 700 miles of front.

If you have eyes that can see through house-tops and brick walls, you will see scores of uniformed officers poring over maps and plans; aides hurrying from one department to another; orderlies standing at ramrod attention back of busy generals; a Crown Prince learning how to govern; a Czar conferring with his staff. You will see all these important acts which send a half million men to the attack, to the fording of a stream, to the taking of an enemy redoubt. The clash of cavalry, the thunder of big guns, the offensives against Lemberg and Kovel and all the other places—all are controlled from here.

Yet, if you have the eyes of ordinary mortals, you see none of this and Grand General Headquarters, or the Stavka, as the Russians call it, is the dearest, dullest place in all Russia.

Unless you have plenty of work to keep you occupied, this is no place for you. This is no health resort, no place for tired business men, no amusement center for neurotics and rones. Everybody here has a job and he keeps at it and if you have none you are in for a rotten time.

Ordinarily about 20,000 people live here. Now, with the military, the population is about double this. Still the narrow, roughly cobbled streets are seldom crowded because most of the 40,000 people are busy inside. In the dingy shop windows one sees American tooth washes, American sewing machines, American typewriters, American bicycles and advertisements for American harvesting machines.

A long, one-story house of hewn logs, unpainted and weathered to a somber gray, back a little way from the main street, is by tradition the scene of a meeting between Katherine the Great of Russia and Emperor Frederick of Prussia in 1726. Now it is divided into two parts and a family lives in each.

A red brick "opera house" in the middle of the town, the house of the local governor when Czar Nicholas II now finds quarters with his 12-year-old heir, Alexis Nikolaievich; a rather handsome Catholic church, several equally handsome Greek orthodox churches; the street market; the view from the terrace back of the Emperor's quarters, make up the principal sights of the place.

A long, very narrow street, between two rows of whitewashed stone buildings, whose roofs are almost low enough to be touched by the extended hand, looks inviting. Here are strange shops kept by very hairy men. Their wares are principally articles for the peasants—charcoal stoves, ropes, coarse cotton goods, shovels, hoes, fur and near-fur caps, heavy boots and the like. As one looks with interest into a barlike place where "kvass," a Russian drink made from fermented black bread but non-alcoholic, one almost gets run over by a little cart made by the man who made the Peace Party famous. In it were Russian officers.

Lunch at the officers' mess is the real break in the day here. Only it does not last long. General Alexieff sees to that. At 1:30 sharp he enters on the run, passes rapidly down a lane of officers standing at salute, seats himself at his table and the waiters begin to serve. In 35 minutes he rushes out again. He wastes not a minute.

Still one has time to take a look round, chewing as he looks. Down the hall a way is Captain McCall, the British attaché, the hippest of all. There is the French Lieutenant, wearing a black monocle, and a French captain who has been twice wounded, according to insignia worn on his sleeve. Then there are the Belgian, Japanese and Portuguese. They are all very well in their various uniforms and for a few minutes one gets the "feeling" that he is really at army headquarters and that there really is a world war going on, that there is a mighty European coalition.

Suddenly an orderly hands you your cap and cane and you find yourself in the street again. Tired from morning rambles, you hunt something more restful to do and suddenly, as you pass a kiosk, you spy among an array of newspapers and periodicals printed in Russian a paper-backed volume with this title, in English, upon it: "The Adventures of Sherlock Holmes." It was a heresy, but Sherlock entertained till dinner time. After that came a visit to one of the jammed movie theaters and then bed.

FASHION LETTER

BY MARGARET MASON
(Written for the United Press)

Eure Mocha and Java, well mixed and ground fine.

Is Coffee I always have ordered for mine.

My Mother before me, my Grand-mother too

Have always insisted on this blended brew.

But now I must shatter traditions, I see,

For Mocha and Java I've picked from one tree.

SAO PAULO, Brazil, Oct. 1 (by mail).—This certainly is going to be an awful blow to the domestic coffee connoisseurs. The epicures who smack their lips and extol the elusive flavor of the Java as it subtly intermingles with the Mocha.

Indeed it furnished me coffee grounds for surprise when I found the Mocha and the Java not only growing on the same family tree but even on the same branch of the family.

The best way to settle the coffee question is to take a night's train trip from Rio to Sao Paulo. The state of Sao Paulo is in the greatest coffee growing country in the world. It's capital, city of Sao Paulo, is justly dubbed the "Chicago of South America." A two hours' run by train brings us to the little town of Campinas right out in the midst of the open rolling coffee country.

The "King" of Campinas himself took us by auto out through the coffee plantations. He is a King by his own dubbing. This successful North American from Lawrence, Kansas, chose to make light of my appellation just as he chose to make light of Campinas. You see he controls the electric light plant and the traction line in Campinas as well as in thirteen other small Brazilian towns. Surely a neat little crown of incandescent bulbs is not amiss above his brow.

I've heard of people painting the town red, but they would be helpless to incardinate further the country of Sao Paulo. All the soil is of a marvelous redness shading to vivid crimson and rose. With its billowing red hills it is startlingly reminiscent of San Diego County, California. Showing a Hibernian tendency there hills all have the green of the coffee trees above the red soil. As far as the eye can see the coffee plantations stretch away into the distance. Some plantations boast of over a million trees.

To speak of coffee trees is very misleading. In reality they are bushes except so much as big lilac bushes except that the leaves are smaller. The coffee berry itself looks like a cherry turning from green to a bright cherry red through its different stages of ripeness. Unlike the cherry, however, the coffee berry grows in clusters, interspersed with leaves, closely fastened, without stems, to the branches of the tree. It has little pulp and no juice and the coffee beans proper form the heart of the berry like a cherry pit split in halves.

And here is where the difference between the Mocha and Java comes in. Not being a prize student of botany I don't know the technical terms but something happens to the stamen of some coffee blossoms so that they make stunted beans and round of shape which are called Java while the perfect Mocha beans are large and oval in contour. So it's just the subtle difference in their shape that you taste when they are all ground up together.

In coffee-picking time even the slightest tots help in the harvest. Everybody works, even father. The picking consists in stripping all the berries off right down the branch. As the leaves get in somewhat on the general strip, after the harvest, the poor little coffee tree looks a bit denuded.

The berries are stripped off and allowed to fall on the ground where are raked up and carried away in baskets.

The next step is to spread them out on an open cement court to dry in the sun.

When the berries are all shriveled and dried to the consistency of husks they are put through successive machines that husk them and separate the Mocha beans from the Java. They finally land in sacks ready to be shipped down to Santos and exported.

As you sip your Turkish, French, or U. S. A. coffee you may be almost sure it has a Brazilian past. For it is only by the different degrees and processes of roasting in the different countries to which it is sent that the good old native Brazilian bean becomes disguised as a terrible Turk or in true Parisian manner, starts a liaison with chicoree and becomes "cafe."

I have tried to make this coffee clear for you, to show you just where your coffee's bean. I hope it all has percolated.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Help woman's suffrage, have the social time of your young or old life and get the election returns simultaneously, is the way the New York State Woman's Suffrage party asks folks to attend its ball here tonight.

General election returns are everything, but, at the ball tonight they will be of secondary interest so far as the suffragists are concerned. The workers will have their eyes on the returns from South Dakota, West Virginia and Montana.

In the two first mentioned suffrage is an issue and all suffragists are waiting for the moment to give a regular Comanche war whoop if they carry it. In Montana Miss Jeanette Rankin is running for Congress. She is making her race with several million women watching anxiously.

The invitations to dance emphasize that lively one-stepping will be all the go.

ACCEPTING POLITICAL RESULTS

The Register believes that, whatever the result of today's election may be, the country should—and probably will—accept them with equanimity.

In South American countries the beaten element gets out with guns and knives. In Europe they go to the opposite extreme. In many of those countries the liberal party would secure an overwhelming majority could the one man, one vote principle prevail. The people submissively accept the decree handed out to them by kings and lords as a child takes a whipping. They don't even care or dare to discuss it.

Midway between these two extremes stands the American political custom. The vanquished are perfectly free to pour out all the bitterness of their souls. But they rarely do it.

As Congressman Gardner once remarked in Congress, "I never lick my sore paws in public." It was a historic remark, and one that represents very faithfully our political manners. As to guns and knives like the other side of the Gulf of Mexico, the man who resorts to them is promptly locked up in a lunatic asylum. It is really a marvelous showing of public self-control, and one that proves the security of democratic institutions.

If anything, our citizens carry this habit of acceptance and good nature a little too far. With many it runs into a complete indifference. They have come to feel that politics is hopelessly corrupt, and that it is useless to expect anything different. A good healthy kicker is a disagreeable creature to have around. But he does call attention to many abuses and is an indispensable element in any community.

ELECTION RETURNS

People who sit up election night often ask why returns are so slow coming. They complain about the dribble of news that filter in.

Of course the counting, dispatching and tabulating of 15,000,000 ballots cast in several hundred thousand polling places, is "some job," but there are hundreds of thousands of men working on it election night. The news ought to come in systematically and promptly.

Formerly many thousands of polling precincts had neither railroad nor telegraph connection. In many cases arrangements had to be made for carrying the returns on horseback or by team.

Now there are comparatively few precincts that are not connected by telephone. If there is delay, it may be because the counters are lazy. More commonly it is because some one has carried the returns home in his pocket and has forgotten to telephone them in.

A whole nation eagerly awaits results of a presidential election. In many cases vital personal interests are affected. The public should not be kept waiting. Every election officer and every newspaper representative should help get the news on the wires at the earliest possible moment.

SPECIALTY FARMING

Seeing the price of all kinds of food advancing, the average man feels like offering much advice about the raising of these products. Of course such suggestions are apt to be worthless. Still it is admitted by most experts that farm methods of past years have been inefficient and unbusinesslike. So the consumer may perhaps express an opinion about the general principles on which he thinks farming could be placed more on a business basis.

A hint in that direction is offered by a dispatch just published from Burlington, Vt., telling how one man had made $8000 by raising cabbages on twelve acres of land. While a good many farmers are making handsome profits nowadays, it is not likely that many of them have cleaned up $8000 in one year by raising cabbages. This man no doubt succeeded by specializing on this crop. He must have studied every authority on the raising of this vegetable, and talked with every man who could give him any practical information.

Many farmers fritter away their energy by doing too many different things. In most forms of production the man who wins out is the one who specializes. He produces few lines but gets out a large amount on each line. In that way his help becomes expert on that proposition. When you double your production, you do not usually double the labor costs. But you should increase the skill with which the work is done. The expense account grows smaller per unit of production, and the results should be of better quality.

Of course in specialty farming, if there is a crop failure, it is more disastrous. But the specialty farmer should be better able to protect his crop from insect pests and the vicissitudes of weather.

The consumer's hat goes off to the farmer who can make a success in any kind of food raising. He performs a public service in a time of struggle with living costs.

With Malice Toward None

By Henry James

How Long

Where peace should be, the streams run red.

High toward the murky skies, From which the very sun seems fled, The flames of homes arise. The children starve, the women moan, Where desolation broods, Or wander, fearful and alone In squalid solitudes.

The dead men rot in heap on heap, And horrid things of prey To fattens feed, or visits keep.

Through ghastly night and day, Why thus should soldiers bravely die To bolster up a throne,

Nor, loathing, spurn the royal cry That calls for blood and bone?

We hear a sound from 'cross the sea; 'Tis death that chants a song.

To every lip there springs the plea: "How long, O Lord, how long?"

Severity

Four Michigan hunters have been fined $10 for having killed a fifth. Whether they were fined this sum each or mulcted in $2.50 apiece the dispatch neglects to explain.

Their excuse was excellent. The victim was using a headlight, and they mistook this for the eyes of a deer. The remarkable resemblance between a headlight and the eyes of a deer on a dark night is well understood.

Much Ado

Every time the woman who used to be Aimee Crocker gets married or divorced the public prints seem to regard the incident as worth mentioning. Why, it is of no importance even to the person herself.

Matrimony by Wire
A soldier at the border has gone through the ceremony of marriage, by telegraph to a young woman in Missouri.

Doubtless this afforded him a pleasant break in the routine, cost him something for tolls and left him in the end no more married than prior to the hocus-pocus.

Knowing India
According to Rabindranath Tagore, Kipling does not know India.

With great respect for the Indian poet, I believe that he is mistaken. There is considerable mystery about India, largely artificial, and erected by such cultured gentlemen as Tagore.

It is the belief of millions of readers that Kipling not only pierced the veil, but took it off for the benefit of his generation.

Easy Come, Easy Go

The accumulating millions of Mr. Frick cause him effort only as they incite his ambition to lessen his load of wealth.

No individual has moral right, and none should have legal right, to a fortune so vast.

Mr. Frick spends a quarter of a million for a small piece of canvas painted by a distinguished artist long deceased. Of course a canvas is worth what it will bring in the market, just as anything else is. Some future millionaire will some day be paying fabulous prices for the work that now the artist is unable to sell even at a reasonable figure.

However, since Mr. Frick has money to burn, it could be comforting to see somebody who needed the warmth benefitting by the blaze.

For instance, had he chosen to do some good with his money, to afford education to the ambitious, to relieve hunger, to encourage invention and labor, to sustain living art, what wonders he might have wrought! He might almost have been forgiven for sopping up the stream of wealth as a sponge absorbs water.

An Oil Strike

Readers of course noticed that there was a strike among oil workers at Bayonne; also that it was settled.

If the Rockefeller tribe lived up to their professions there could not be a strike of their employees. Conditions could be made such that loyalty would become not a duty alone, but a pleasure.

Why don't they do it?

No News

The Argentine consul to Petrograd, just arrived in this country, says that Europe has relapsed into barbarism. Surely the gentleman did not think he was springing a surprise on us.

SEES U. S. PEACE HERALD

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Speaking at a luncheon given in his honor here by the Pilgrims of the United States, Right Rev. Huiyso Yokoi, Yamatana, Bishop of Worcester, England, asserted that the role which the English people believe the most thoughtful Americans desire to play is that their nation shall be "hailed by all the world, even by those who have been at war as the herald of true peace and of progress which gives to every nation, big or little, a place in God's sun."

FORGET YOUR ACHES

Stic knees, aching limbs, lame back make life a burden. If you suffer from rheumatism, gout, lumbago, neuralgia, get a bottle of Sloan's Liniment, the universal remedy for pain. Easy to apply; it penetrates without rubbing and soothes the tender flesh. Cleanses and more effective than musky ointments or poultices. For strains or sprains, sore muscles or wrenched ligaments, resulting from strenuous exercise, Sloan's Liniment gives quick relief. Keep it on hand for emergencies. At your Druggist's, 25c.

Tonight at Clune's.

THE MAN FROM BITTER ROOTS WILLIAM FOX PRODUCTION

AMUSEMENTS

At the West End

An extra big bill will be given patrons who attend the West End Theater tonight, where the latest election returns will be flashed upon the screen.

Pauline Frederick will play a double role in "Ashes of Embers," her latest and most remarkable production, while Burton Holmes will take the audience on a trip to the Isle of Capri and show the wonderful Blue Grotto. Another feature will be the eruption of Mt. Vesuvius—a sight worth going miles to see.

At Clune's

Manager Lacey of Clune's Theater feels so elated over the show last night that he claims it one of the best of the programs he has run in all the twelve years of his theatrical career. Love and adventure follow William Farnum through the new Fox Film "The Man From Bitter Root." There are always villains who get in the way, and these men are ruthlessly hurled aside, before the path of virtue. This is what has made strength a handicap to William Farnum. He tries to be gentle with his opponent, but it is like a lion trying to be kind to a mouse. It is one of the strongest pictures of its kind.

The Keystone comedy was good and it had the house in an uproar all the way through. The vaudeville was very fine.

At the Temple

The best thing about "The Chattel," the current film offering at the Temple Theater, is the acting of E. H. Sothorn. The worst thing about it is "The Chattel," but even at that it is fair enough.

The film is billed as "one beautiful series of thrills and tangle-ments." It is that. For the Vitaphone coffers have been placed at the unlimited command of the costumer, the scene maker and the property men.

"The Chattel" is melodrama. It is a very interesting picture.

Peggy Hyland, who supports Mr. Sothorn, smiles a grave and exceedingly charming smile all through the piece, even at those times when she is supposed to be heavy of heart. Miss Hyland can't act—and, why should she? She is easy to look upon and her inability (or unwillingness?) effectively to pucker up her pretty visage into a semblance of weeping can readily be forgiven under the circumstances.

The playing of the Temple Theater orchestra is superb. Music turned out by these musicians is a treat. The Temple orchestra makes better music than any that has ever been produced by any other permanent orchestra in Santa Ana.

Temple film offerings are usually on a high plane of excellence. It is very rarely that the movie fan who attends the Temple comes away with a sense of having seen a picture that was not on a par with the best produced in the United States.

PRINCE LEOPOLD SLATED
GENEVA, Nov. 7.—It is reported here that Prince Leopold of Bavaria will be the new King of Poland.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—State Department officials recognize already the prospect that this country may soon have to consider the question of Poland's recognition. The best opinion is that the United States will wait until the hereditary monarch spoken of by Germany and Austria-Hungary should have ascended his throne. It is intimated here, however, that the Allies may try to bring pressure to have this country delay recognition until after the war.

SEES HUGHES VICTORY

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., Nov. 7.—Theodore Roosevelt delivered his usual election eve address to his friends and neighbors here, urging them to vote the Republican ticket today. Referring to his campaign for Charles E. Hughes, he said:

"It makes no difference whether I have been on a trip to the River of Doubt or on a hunting trip or a political trip, I have to tell my neighbors about it."

Colonel Roosevelt predicted that the Nation, State, Nassau county and Oyster Bay would go Republican.

U. S. EXPORTS 8 BILLION

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The foreign trade of the United States for the calendar year of 1916 will approximate the sum of $8,000,000,000, or about one-fifth of the entire international trade of the world, according to estimates made public here by the foreign trade department of the National City Bank.

It will be 50 per cent greater than in 1916 and double that of 1914. Excess of exports over imports will approximate $3,000,000,000 against $1,768,884,000 in 1915; $324,348,000 in 1914 and $691,422,000 in 1913.

PENNA. SEEKS OUSTING GLASS MILK BOTTLE

HARRISBURG, Pa., Nov. 7.—The death knell of the glass milk bottle in Pennsylvania has been sounded.

Dr. Samuel G. Dixon, the state commissioner of health, says that "it will have to give way in the near future to the destructible bottle that will never be used a second time."

This is taken to mean that within a few weeks the Health department advisory board will rule that the glass milk bottle must go.

Such rulings have all the effect of statute law.

Commissioner Dixon doesn't like the danger of infection through the promiscuous distribution and gathering of bottles, no matter how cleanly the dairy or creamery may be.

CHARGE "SPUD" CORNER

PEORIA, Ill., Nov. 7.—A committee of Peoria housewives, determined to investigate the high produce prices, announce that they have discovered that potatoes by the carload are being dumped into the Illinois river in order to maintain the record-breaking prices of tubers which at present are selling for upwards of $2 per bushel.

When women protested at the dumping of potatoes into the river no explanation was forthcoming.

PASADENA KILLED IN WAR

PASADENA, Nov. 7.—William H. MacLeod of Pasadena was killed in action October 26 in France while serving with a Canadian regiment, according to information received by his sister, Mrs. John B. Powers of 1412 Magnolia street. MacLeod enlisted in Calgary in 1914. He was seriously injured in action, and after spending months in a British hospital he returned to the front as a member of Lord Strathcona's horse and was a member of that regiment when killed.

MUTINY SURVIVOR DIES

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 7.—Lieut. John Hadden, the last known survivor of the Indian mutiny, died here. Lieut. Hadden was born in Ireland, December 25, 1837. In 1855 he enlisted in the Ninety-seventh Earl of Ulster's regiment, which, during the Crimean war, placed scaling ladders against the walls of Sebastopol. This regiment, a few years later, under Sir Colin Campbell, marched to the relief of Lucknow, and is known in history as the regiment that took the guns in this siege. During this battle the colonel, who was mortally wounded, was rescued under fire by Lieut. Hadden. For this he was promoted.

Just Among Ourselves

A well known young artist of Orange County, who is not by any means a rabid suffragette, when asked to make a visit to the home of friends in the mountains, replied that she would not make the trip until after November 7, because it might storm and she could not get home to cast her vote. This is one woman who appreciates the right of franchise. O. L.

age, when a man might be given ninety days in the bastille for stealing a loaf of bread? Boys who damage people's property and steal the articles for which they pay their good money, besides the inconvenience of being deprived of them, should be punished as far as the law allows. O. L.

Some future millionaire will some day be paying fabulous prices for the work that now the artist is unable to sell even at a reasonable figure.

However, since Mr. Frick has money to burn, it would be comforting to see somebody who needed the warmth benefit by the blaze.

For instance, had he chosen to do some good with his money, to afford education to the ambitious, to relieve hunger, to encourage invention and labor, to sustain living art, what wonders he might have wrought! He might almost have been forgiven for sopping up the stream of wealth as a sponge absorbs water.

An Oil Strike

Readers of course noticed that there was a strike among oil workers at Bayonne; also that it was settled.

If the Rockefeller tribe lived up to their professions there could not be a strike of their employees. Conditions could be made such that loyalty would become not a duty alone, but a pleasure.

Why don't they do it?

SEES U. S. PEACE HERALD

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Speaking at a luncheon given in his honor here by the Pilgrims of the United States, Right Rev. Hayshe Wolcott Yeatman, Bishop of Worcester, England, asserted that the people which the English people believe the most thoughtful Americans desire to play is that their nation shall be "hailed by all the world, even by those who have been at war as the herald of true peace and of progress which gives to every nation, big or little, a place in God's sun."

FORGET YOUR ACES

Stie knees, aching limbs, lame back make life a burden. If you suffer from rheumatism, gout, lumbago, neuralgia, get a bottle of Sloan's Liniment, the universal remedy for pain. Easy to apply; it penetrates without rubbing and soothes the tender flesh. Cleaner and more effective than musky ointments or poultices. For strains or sprains, sore muscles or wrenched ligaments, resulting from strenuous exercise, Sloan's Liniment gives quick relief. Keep it on hand for emergencies. At your Druggists, 25c.

THE MAN FROM BITTER ROOTS
WILLIAM FOX PRODUCTION

AMUSEMENTS

At the West End

An extra big bill will be given patrons who attend the West End Theater tonight, where the latest election returns will be flashed upon the screen.

Pauline Frederick will play a double role in "Ashes of Embers," her latest and most remarkable production, while Burton Holmes will take the audience on a trip to the Isle of Capri and show the wonderful Blue Grotto. Another feature will be the eruption of Mt. Vesuvius—a sight worth going miles to see.

At Clune's

Manager Lacey of Clune's Theater feels so elated over the show last night that he claims it one of the best of the programs he has run in all the twelve years of his theatrical career. Love and adventure follow William Farnum through the new Fox Film "The Man From Bitter Root." There are always villains who get in the way, and these men are ruthlessly hurled aside, before the path of virtue. This is what has made strength a handicap to William Farnum. He tries to be gentle with his opponent, but it is like a lion trying to be kind to a mouse. It is one of the strongest pictures of its kind.

The Keystone comedy was good and it had the house in an uproar all the way through. The vaudeville was very fine.

At the Temple

The best thing about "The Chattel," the current film offering at the Temple Theater, is the acting of E. H. Sothern. The worst thing about it is "The Chattel," but even at that it is fair enough.

The film is billed as "one beautiful series of frills and furbelows." It is that. For the Vitaphone coffers have been placed at the unlimited command of the costumer, the scene maker and the property men.

"The Chattel" is melodrama. It is a very interesting picture. Peggy Hyland, who supports Mr. Sothern, smiles a genuine and exceedingly charming smile all through the piece, even at those times when she is supposed to be heavy of heart. Miss Hyland can't act—and probably doesn't give a hang. Indeed, why should she? She is easy to look upon and her inability (or unwillingness) effectively to pucker up her pretty visage into a semblance of weeping can readily be forgiven under the circumstances.

The playing of the Temple Theater orchestra is superb. Music turned out by these musicians is a treat. The Temple orchestra makes better music than any that has ever been produced by any other permanent orchestra in Santa Ana.

Temple film offerings are usually on a high plane of excellence. It is very rarely that the movie fan who attends the Temple comes away with a sense of having seen a picture that was not on a par with the best produced in the United States.

PRINCE LEOPOLD SLATED

GENEVA, Nov. 7.—It is reported here that Prince Leopold of Bavaria will be the new King of Poland.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—State Department officials recognize already the prospect that this country may soon have to consider the question of Poland's recognition. The best opinion is that the United States would wait until the hereditary monarch spoken of by Germany and Austria-Hungary should have ascended his throne. It is intimated here, however, that the Allies may try to bring pressure to have this country delay recognition until after the war.

SEES HUGHES VICTORY

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., Nov. 7.—Theodore Roosevelt delivered his usual election eve address to his friends and neighbors here, urging them to vote the Republican ticket today. Referring to his campaign for Charles E. Hughes, he said:

"It makes no difference whether I have been on a trip to the River of Doubt or on a hunting trip or a political trip, I have to tell my neighbors about it."

Colonel Roosevelt predicted that the Nation, State, Nassau county and Oyster Bay would go Republican.

U. S. EXPORTS 8 BILLION

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The foreign trade of the United States for the calendar year of 1916 will approximate the sum of $8,000,000,000, or about one-fifth of the entire international trade of the world, according to estimates made public here by the foreign trade department of the National City Bank.

It will be 50 per cent greater than in 1916 and double that of 1914. Excess of exports over imports will approximate $3,000,000,000 against $1,768,884,000 in 1915; $324,348,000 in 1914 and $691,422,000 in 1913.

PENNA. SEEKS OUSTING GLASS MILK BOTTLE

HARRISBURG, Pa., Nov. 7.—The death knell of the glass milk bottle in Pennsylvania has been sounded.

Dr. Samuel G. Dixon, the state commissioner of health, says that "it will have to give way in the near future to the destructible bottle that will never be used a second time."

This is taken to mean that within a few weeks the Health department advisory board will rule that the glass milk bottle must go.

Such rulings have all the effect of statute law.

Commissioner Dixon doesn't like the danger of infection through the promiscuous distribution and gathering of bottles, no matter how cleanly the dairy or creamery may be.

CHARGE "SPUD" CORNER

PEORIA, Ill., Nov. 7.—A committee of Peoria housewives, determined to investigate the high produce prices, announce that they have discovered that potatoes by the carload are being dumped into the Illinois river in order to maintain the record-breaking prices of tubers which at present are selling for upwards of $2 per bushel.

When women protested at the dumping of potatoes into the river no explanation was forthcoming.

PASADENA KILLED IN WAR

PASADENA, Nov. 7.—William H. MacLeod of Pasadena was killed in action October 26 in France while serving with a Canadian regiment, according to information received by his sister, Mrs. John B. Powers of 1412 Magnolia street. MacLeod enlisted in Calgary in 1914. He was seriously injured in action, and after spending months in a British hospital he returned to the front as a member of Lord Strathcona's horse and was a member of that regiment when killed.

MUTINY SURVIVOR DIES

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 7.—Lieut. John Hadden, the last known survivor of the Indian mutiny, died here. Lieut. Hadden was born in Ireland, December 25, 1837. In 1855 he enlisted in the Ninety-seventh Earl of Ulster's regiment, which, during the Crimean war, placed scaling ladders against the walls of Sebastopol. This regiment, a few years later, under Sir Colin Campbell, marched to the relief of Lucknow, and is known in history as the regiment that took the guns in this siege. During this battle the colonel, who was mortally wounded, was rescued under fire by Lieut. Hadden. For this he was promoted.

Just Among Ourselves

A well known young artist of Orange County, who is not by any means a rabid suffragette, when asked to make a visit to the home of friends in the mountains, replied that she would not make the trip until after November 7, because it might storm and she could not get home to cast her vote. This is one woman who appreciates the right of franchise. O. L.

What's the matter with having a co-operative family bakery, when bread goes up? In other cities there are co-operative kitchens, well managed, and much money is saved to families and much better and more proper food provided. O. L.

Two women at Stanford are planning for uniformity in dress for women. Now what would the poor dears do if they couldn't spend time planning their clothes? Perhaps they could make it count for something. O. L.

Why do we wink at the misdeeds of boys, some of them of not very tender age, when a man might be given ninety days in the bastille for stealing a loaf of bread? Boys who damage people's property and steal the articles for which they pay their good money, besides the inconvenience of being deprived of them, should be punished as far as the law allows. O. L.

RUMANIA WAS SUBJECT

First Travellers Listen to Article on Country of Interest in Big War

A good attendance yesterday afternoon marked the meeting of the First Travel section, held at the home of Mrs. L. J. Carden on French street, holly making the rooms bright and reminding the members of the coming of the Christmas tide.

The leader, Mrs. J. P. Baumgartner, was present, after an absence of several weeks' visiting at her old home in Missouri, and received a warm welcome.

An interesting article on "Rumania and Its Rubicon," from the Geographical Magazine was read and enjoyed.

Delectable refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by her daughter, Miss Helen Carden and her friend, Miss Avis Winkles.

Those present were Meses. Baumgartner, Bishop, Bristol of Los Angeles, H. C. Dawes, M. P. Heathman, J. J. Roper, Stephen Ross, L. L. Shaw, W. M. Smart, E. B. Smith, T. E. Stephenson, George Smith, Alice Tubbs, Sproule and I. W. Van Cleave.

Civics Club

The Woman's Civics Club of Santa Ana held its regular November meeting last Saturday afternoon in the council chamber of the city hall.

What seemed to be lacking in numbers present was more than made up by the good, wholesome interest and enthusiasm shown by those present.

During a short business session, the club voted to change its day of meeting from the first Saturday of the month to the third Saturday of each month.

Also, on vote of the members, the Civics Club desired to cooperate with the Associated Charities in the good work they are doing and a sum was appropriated to assist them in some clean-up work they are now doing.

The report of Mrs. J. M. Akins on the convention of Women's Federated Clubs, held at Garden Grove September 21, was very complete and much enjoyed.

The talk by Miss Haines on "Social Service" was a treat that one could not well afford to miss. In such a pleasing manner Miss Haines described the great and powerful work of the Associated Charities at present and the great field for more and better work, and how we here are the means to an end to such great and wonderful good by hearty co-operation all over our big state. Many suggestions were given as to how we can best assist without hindering, or smothering the desire, even though it be small, of self-betterment and support.

Mrs. Wilson next followed with a poem entitled, "That Specter." Lively discussions followed, after which the meeting adjourned to meet on Saturday, December 16.

JOLLY HOUSEWARMING

Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Lacy Honored By Degree Staff of Fraternal Aid Union

Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Lacy, who have recently purchased a pleasant home on West Third street, were given a very jolly housewarming last evening by the degree staff of the Fraternal Aid Union, in which they are very popular members, the husbands of the members also being in the company, which gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William White and went to the Lacy home in a body.

The affair was a complete surprise, but with their usual hospitality, the surprising party was soon made at home. Mrs. Lacy was given a miscellaneous shower of beautiful and useful gifts, which she greatly appreciated and Mr. Lacy was showered with bouquets and the men of the company each presented a cigar.

The evening was merrily spent, features being delightful readings by Mrs. Geo. Ford, Mrs. A. Schreff and W. G. Gould. Before departure the uninvited visitors served delicious ice cream and cake.

Those who enjoyed the event were Messrs. and Meses. W. G. Gould, D. W. Stearns, J. E. Armstrong, W. H. Trindle, J. W. McNeill, R. J. Brown, A. Schreff, William White, George B. Prather; Meses. R. ## UGH! ACID STOMACH, SOURNESS, HEARTBURN, GAS OR INDIGESTION

The Moment "Pape's Diapiesin" Reaches the Stomach All Distress Goes

—Do some foods you eat hit back—taste good, but work badly; ferment into stubborn lumps and cause a sick, sour gassy stomach? Now, Mr. or Mrs. Dyspeptic, jot this down: Pape's Diapiesin digests everything, leaving nothing to sour and upset you. There never was anything so safely quick, so certainly effective. No difference how badly your stomach is disordered you will get happy relief in five minutes, but what pleases you most is that it strengthens and regulates your stomach so you can eat your favorite foods without fear.

Most remedies give you relief sometimes—they are slow, but not sure. "Pape's Diapiesin" is quick, positive and puts your stomach in a healthy condition so the misery won't come back.

You feel different as soon as "Pape's Diapiesin" comes in contact with the stomach—distress just vanishes—your stomach gets sweet, no gases, no belching, no eructations or undigested food, your head clears and you feel fine.

Go now, make the best investment you ever made by getting a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin from any drug store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia or any stomach disorder.—Advertisement.

Interesting Points About Hawaii, Its People, Customs and Music, Subject

A very delightful meeting of the First Travel section of the Ebell was held yesterday afternoon with Mrs. J. N. Bartholomew at her hospitable home on North Broadway. Twenty-four members were present.

Hawaii was the interesting subject of the meeting. Mrs. J. E. Goven gave a fine paper on the "People and Customs" and Mrs. John Clarkson told of the "Poetry and Song."

Victrola music illustrated the lulling music of the islands and the delicious refreshments were fashioned of products from Hawaii made American style and consisted of scalloped fish, fruit salad made mostly of pineapple, coffee and coconut cake.

ARTISTIC SUCCESS

Ebell Day Nursery Benefit Proves Delightful Treat To Large Audience

The concert given last night at Elks' Hall by Mrs. Belle Worland Slabaugh and Clarence Gustlin was a brilliant success from an artistic standpoint, and a very gratifying success financially. A large and most appreciative audience had taken advantage of the opportunity to hear these two brilliant musicians, both of whom were at their best last night. Mr. Gustlin's wizardry with the piano is a rare treat to music lovers, and his brilliant rendition of the beautiful numbers on last night's program brought forth much appreciative comment and applause. The five Paderewski numbers, including the beautiful minuet, with which he closed his program, were never more perfectly rendered.

Mrs. Slabaugh's rich contralto is a prime favorite in Santa Ana musical circles, and last night's varied program afforded an opportunity for the display of her wide range of expression. The sparkling melody of the "Happy Song" (Del Riego) and the exquisite "Coolan Dhu" (Leoni) were in striking contrast to the passionate appeal in Salter's "Cry of Rachel," which was given with magnificent effect.

The program was perfectly arranged and was a musical feast such as is seldom offered here. The generosity of these artists in giving so freely of their talents for the Day Nursery fund, and the kindness of the Elks in donating their hall for the evening is very greatly appreciated by the Day Nursery committee, whose treasury is over a hundred dollars richer as the result of last night's affair.

The program follows:

Mr. Gustlin
Elsa's Dream.....Wagner
Happy Song.....Del Riego

SMASHING OF AUTOS RESULTS IN LAW SUIT

FULLERTON, Nov. 7.—As the outcome of an automobile accident at the intersection of Spadra and Orange-thorpe avenues, R. D. Mercer, through attorney H. D. Thurber, filed suit in the justice court here against J. E. Cunningham. Mercer asks judgment for $180, which is the alleged cost of depreciation in the car, the cost of repairing it and the cost of hiring another car while the repairs were being made. Mercer was traveling north on Spadra avenue, and Cunningham, who lives in East Anaheim, was traveling east. The two cars came together and Mercer's car was overturned. The passengers in both cars escaped with minor injuries.

HEADQUARTERS BEING SOUGHT BY NEW YACHT CLUB AT BEACH CITY

NEWPORT BEACH, Nov. 6.—One of the latest organizations to make its appearance in local circles, the Newport Harbor Yacht Club, formed recently with a charter membership of about forty-five members, last evening held an enthusiastic meeting at the Collins "Castle" at which were many visiting members of Yacht Clubs from San Diego and Los Angeles, who came to lend their aid in the work of organization of the local club.

Two locations for a club house are being considered by the new club, the first being the "Castle," which with its beautiful surroundings and artistic shrubbery would form an attractive site for a much larger and more pretentious yacht club, and the second the East Newport Pavilion, which for many years was the local home of the South Coast Yacht Club of San Pedro.

A committee of three was appointed to go into the merits of the two respective sites and report at a later meeting.

After much discussion the Club burgee was adopted which will consist of an orange circle on a blue field and the letters in white N. H. Y. C. on the orange circle.

After the business meeting a very enjoyable social session was enjoyed by all present until a late hour.

The officers of the new Yacht Club are as follows: Commodore, Albert S. Solland of Los Angeles; vice president, P. H. L. Wilson of Balboa; secretary and treasurer, J. A. Ricker of East Newport; port captain, F. W. Beckwith of Balboa.

RUMANIA WAS SUBJECT

First Travellers Listen to Article on Country of Interest in Big War

A good attendance yesterday afternoon marked the meeting of the First Travelers section, held at the home of Mrs. L. J. Carden on French street, holly making the rooms bright and reminding the members of the coming of the Christmas tide.

The leader, Mrs. J. P. Baumgartner, was present, after an absence of several weeks' visiting at her old home in Missouri, and received a warm welcome.

An interesting article on "Rumania and Its Rubicon," from the Geographical Magazine was read and enjoyed. Delectable refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by her daughter, Miss Helen Carden and her friend, Miss Avis Winkles.

Those present were Meses. Baumgartner, Bishop, Bristol of Los Angeles, H. C. Dawes, M. F. Heathman, J. J. Roper, Stephen Ross, L. L. Shaw, W. M. Smart, E. B. Smith, T. E. Stephenson, George Smith, Alice Tubbs, Sproule and I. W. Van Cleave.

Civics Club
The Woman's Civic Club of Santa Ana held its regular November meeting last Saturday afternoon in the council chamber of the city hall.

What seemed to be lacking in numbers present, was more than made up by the good, wholesome interest and enthusiasm shown by those present.

During a short business session, the club voted to change its day of meeting from the first Saturday of the month to the third Saturday of each month.

Also, on vote of the members, the Civics Club desired to cooperate with the Associated Charities in the good work they are doing and a sum was appropriated to assist them in some clean-up work they are now doing.

The report of Mrs. J. M. Atkins on the convention of Women's Federated Clubs, held at Garden Grove September 21, was very complete and much enjoyed.

The talk by Miss Haines on "Social Service" was a treat that one could not well afford to miss. In such a pleasing manner Miss Haines described the great and powerful work of the Associated Charities at present and the great field for more and better work, and how we here are the means to an end to such great and wonderful good by hearty co-operation all over our big state.

Many suggestions were given as to how we can best assist without hindering, or smothering the desire, even though it be small, of self-betterment and support.

Mrs. Wilson next followed with a poem entitled, "That Specter." Lively discussions followed, after which the meeting adjourned to meet on Saturday, December 16.

Interesting Points About Hawaii, Its People, Customs and Music, Subject

A very delightful meeting of the First Travel section of the Ebells was held yesterday afternoon with Mrs. J. N. Bartholomew at her hospitable home on North Broadway. Twenty-four members were present.

Hawaii was the interesting subject of the meeting. Mrs. J. E. Goven gave a fine paper on the "People and Customs" and Mrs. John Clarkson told of the "Poetry and Song."

Victrola music illustrated the lulling music of the islands and the delicious refreshments were fashioned of products from Hawaii made American style and consisted of scalloped fish, fruit salad made mostly of pineapple, coffee and coconut cake.

UGH! ACID STOMACH, SOURNESS, HEARTBURN, GAS OR INDIGESTION

The Moment "Pape's Diapiesin" Reaches the Stomach All Distress Goes

—Do some foods you eat hit back—taste good, but work badly; ferment into stubborn lumps and cause a sick, sour gassy stomach? Now, Mr. or Mrs. Dyspeptic, jot this down: Pape's Diapiesin digests everything, leaving nothing to sour and upset you. There never was anything so safely quick, so certainly effective. No difference how badly your stomach is disordered you will get happy relief in five minutes, but what pleases you most is that it strengthens and regulates your stomach so you can eat your favorite foods without fear.

Most remedies give you relief sometimes—they are slow, but not sure. "Pape's Diapiesin" is quick, positive and puts your stomach in a healthy condition so the misery won't come back.

You feel different as soon as "Pape's Diapiesin" comes in contact with the stomach—distress just vanishes—your stomach gets sweet, no gases, no belching, no eructations or undigested food, your head clears and you feel fine.

Go now, make the best investment you ever made, by getting a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin from any drug store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia or any stomach disorder.—Advertisement.

ARTISTIC SUCCESS

Ebells Day Nursery Benefit Proves Delightful Treat To Large Audience

The concert given last night at Elks' Hall by Mrs. Belle Worland Slabaugh and Clarence Gustlin was a brilliant success from an artistic standpoint, and a very gratifying success financially. A large and most appreciative audience had taken advantage of the opportunity to hear these two brilliant musicians, both of whom were at their best last night. Mr. Gustlin's wizardry with the piano is a rare treat to music lovers, and his brilliant rendition of the beautiful numbers on last night's program brought forth much appreciative comment and applause. The five Paderewski numbers, including the beautiful "Minuet," which he closed his program, were never more perfectly rendered.

Mrs. Slabaugh's rich contralto is a prime favorite in Santa Ana musical circles, and last night's varied program afforded an opportunity for the display of her wide range of expression. The sparkling melody of the "Happy Song" (Del Riego) and the exquisite "Coolan Dhu" (Leoni) were in striking contrast to the passionate appeal in Salter's "Cry of Rachel," which was given with magnificent effect.

The program was perfectly arranged and was a musical feast such as is seldom offered here. The generosity of these artists in giving so freely of their talents for the Day Nursery fund, and the kindness of the Elks in donating their hall for the evening is very greatly appreciated by the Day Nursery committee, whose treasury is over a hundred dollars richer as the result of last night's affair.

The program follows:

Air and Variations.....Handel
Gavotte.....Gluck-Brahms
Elsa's Dream.....Wagner

Coolan Dhu.....Leoni

DRINK A GLASS OF REAL HOT WATER BEFORE BREAKFAST.

Says we will both look and feel clean, sweet and fresh and avoid illness.

Sanitary science has of late made rapid strides with results that are of untold blessing to humanity. The latest application of its untiring research is the recommendation that it is as necessary to attend to internal sanitation of the drainage system of the human body as it is to the drains of the house.

Those of us who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when we arise, splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, can, instead, feel as fresh as a daisy by opening the sluices of the system each morning and flushing out the whole of the internal poisonous stagnant matter.

Everyone, whether ailing, sick or well, should, each morning before breakfast, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast. While you are enjoying your breakfast the phosphated hot water is quietly extracting a large volume of water from the blood and getting ready for a thorough flushing of all the inside organs.

The millions of people who are bothered with constipation, bilious spells, stomach trouble, rheumatic stiffness; others who have sallow skins, blood disorders and sickly complexions are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone a pronounced crank on the subject of internal sanitation.

DOG SAVES MASTER FROM DEATH SHOCK

SAVANNAH—"Rex," a collie dog, belonging to R. W. Riser, commercial agent of the Ocean Steamship company, 726 Henry street, east, is a hero. Sunday afternoon he saved his master from probable death by electrocution and himself risked being shot as a "mad dog" because of his howls, which brought the police.

Mr. Riser went to the garage in the rear of his home to install an electric light. He failed to switch off the current before cutting the insulation from a wire with his knife. As he cut the insulation the current shot through him, knocking him unconscious to the floor. The live wire fell across his chest.

"Rex," the collie, was with his master at the time. The dog leaped upon Riser, pushing him with his paws and yelping like mad for help.

The dog's howls were so loud and wild that neighbors thought the animal mad. The neighbors phoned the police, bringing a call officer out to kill the "mad dog."

Before the neighbors reached the garage, young Robert Riser, 14 years old, summoned by the dog's howls, ran out and pulled the wires from his father's body, burning his own hand in doing so.

Mr. Riser by this time was purple in the face and was unconscious. A physician was summoned, who worked for fifteen minutes before he brought the unconscious man around.

Mr. Riser says that Rex was given a feast of beef bones as a reward. "And Rex is not for sale," said Mr. Riser.

Pauline Frederick in Jail!

PAULINE FREDERICK, FAMOUS PLAYERS STAR IN PARAMOUNT PICTURES.

No, the cruel censors have not placed the celebrated Famous Players-Paramount star in durance vile for playing "Zaza" and "Bella Donna." It was the thoughtless scenario writer who placed her there for a scene in a recent Famous Players production on the Paramount Program. As Miss Frederick remarked when she inspected the cell, she was so glad it was in the studio and not in a real jail, because she could go ahead and weep without keeping one eye open for rats.

Los Angeles Produce Market
The dried fruit market continues firm all along the line, with the possible exception of evaporated apples which are only about steady on the primary market, having been advanced by holders about 1/4 cent a pound. Figs were so seriously damaged by the early rains that they are practically sold out of growers' hands already and at considerably higher prices than ever before. Peaches are steady but featureless at the present moment. Prunes evidence further firmness, while it is expected that all grades of raisins will be advanced either today or tomorrow. Potatoes continue easy and prices, for both locals and northern Burbanks were lowered yesterday to $2.50 and $2.60 for the former variety and $2.60 to $2.75 for the latter kind. Idaho Russets and Lempons are unchanged. The reaction to lower levels is not expected to last long in the potato market and many dealers are predicting substantially higher values in another week or ten days.

Case-count eggs jumped to 43 cents a dozen on the Produce Exchange Monday morning.

WINTERSBURG'S NEWS BUDGET

WINTERSBURG, Nov. 7.—Mrs. George Crane entertained very delightfully on Wednesday with an old-fashioned quilting party in honor of her aunt, Mrs. M. A. Null of Los Angeles, who is her house guest. Those invited arrived early in the forenoon and at once gathered around the quilt where they industriously sewed their very neatest and carried on pleasant conversation. The quilt was of tulip design, pieced by the hostess' mother. A chicken dinner with all the extras was served at 12 o'clock to which all present did ample justice. Those present were Mrs. Geo. Gearhart, Mrs. Mansell Roberson, Mrs. B. A. Farrar, Mrs. M. J. Barton, Mrs. Ethel Warner, Mrs. M. E. Clemans, Mrs. N. E. Dwyer, Rev. and Mrs. O. N. Oleson, Mrs. Alice Vail of Santa Ana, Mrs. Crane of Huntington Beach, Mr. W. A. Crane of Santa Ana, Mrs. Null, the guest of honor, and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Crane and daughter, Miss Mary.

The Halloween social at Bradbury's Hall last night given by the Epworth League, was largely attended by the League and their friends. The decorations were the symbolical black cat and jack-o'-lantern faces, together with products of the autumn season, which gave to the room an air of the harvest time. Bobbing for apples, outlining the "Black Cat," games, a witch or two by way of variety made the time pass quickly. Doughnuts, coffee and pumpkin pie were served before the merry gathering dispersed.

The M. E. Sunday school held its annual picnic at Anaheim Landing Saturday. 9 o'clock was the hour set to leave the church and the hay wagon driven by James Haptenstall was soon filled to overflowing with the merry boys and girls. Several auto and surrey loads followed, a few persons went by jitney to Huntington Beach, thence by street car and the Y. M. C. A. boys went on their bicycles. An excellent picnic dinner with hot coffee was served at noon, after which all who wished were taken for a boat ride. During the afternoon a series of sports was carried on, the winners being as follows: Wallace Winters, 100 yard dash for boys; Lora Wells, 50 yard running race for all under 10 years old; Ethelene Culver, 50 yard running race for all over 10; Walter Winters, sack race for boys; Minnie Grana, sack race for girls; Minnie Grana, tug of war (two captains chosen); Mrs. James Haptenstall, nail driving contest for women; Mrs. A. B. Crane, walking race for officers and teachers; Mr. James Haptenstall, running broad jump; Prof. H. O. Ensign, horseshoes. Before starting for home boxes of the finest apples were brought from some secret hiding place and strange to say, they did not remain in the boxes very long. The chairman of the committees were: Mrs. A. B. Crane, dinner; James Haptenstall, place and transportation; Rev. O. N. Oleson, entertainment, who deserve mention for their excellent work in making the day a happy one for all present, and are hereby given the hearty thanks of the church and Sunday school.

Mrs. Frank Ulrich, who underwent a serious operation at the Santa Ana hospital last Sunday morning, is reported to be doing nicely and may be allowed to return home in about ten days.

L. E. Rush made a business trip to Los Angeles yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. Horace Moore are the happy parents of a little girl who arrived Saturday morning. This is their second daughter, and although she is without a name as yet, one will be given her as soon as one worthy enough is discovered.

The first quarterly conference of the year will be held at the M. E. church Saturday, Nov. 11, at 7:30. Dr. H. I. Rasmus, the new superintendent of the San Diego district, will preside.

John Clemans, of Chino, who has been visiting the home folks for a few days, returned last night. He celebrated his sixteenth birthday on Saturday, also made merry with the picnic party of Sunday school folks.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Slater entertained a party of Los Angeles people over Sunday. Mrs. Elta Clay, mother of Mrs. Slater, Miss Jennie and Ralph Clay, her brother and sister, and Mr. Andy Magnuson.

There will be a musical and declamatory contest at the M. E. church to-night, beginning at 7:30. The contestants are Young Campaigners and everybody is invited to come out and hear the excellent program they have prepared. Mrs. A. H. Moore is in charge.

INDIANS CLAIM CHICAGO LAKE FRONT

HOLTON, Kan.—The council of the Pottawatomie tribe held a powwow at the dance grounds of the reservation recently to consult a Chicago lawyer, J. C. Grossburg, on a proposal to sue the city of Chicago for the recovery by the tribe of the lake front.

The Pottawatomie Indians, Mr. Grossburg claims, own the Chicago Lake front. He asks the Indians to give him a retaining fee and a per cent of the judgment obtained and he will sue to recover the property, or rather continue the suit he already claims to have started. Supt. Snyder advised the Indians not to give the lawyer the retainer, but to offer him a per cent of the judgment if he cared to prosecute the claim through the courts. The Indians acted on Mr. Snyder's advice.

They had agreed to pay Mr. Grossburg's expenses from Chicago to Kansas and return, and they raised this amount and let it go at that.

The political campaign practically came to a close in Huntington Beach on Friday morning when the Flying Squadra made its visit here. The machines reached the city on schedule time, but the speakers from Los Angeles, who came in on the Pacific electric, were delayed and failed to arrive for some time after the time arranged. However, they were heard by a considerable number of citizens. The representatives of the Edwards committee also held a meeting in the city on Friday.

Pauline Frederick in Jail!

PAULINE FREDERICK, FAMOUS PLAYERS STAR IN PARAMOUNT PICTURES.

No, the cruel censors have not placed the celebrated Famous Players-Paramount star in durance vile for playing "Zaza" and "Bella Donna." It was the thoughtless scenario writer who placed her there for a scene in a recent Famous Players production on the Paramount Program. As Miss Frederick remarked when she inspected the cell, she was so glad it was in the studio and not in a real jail, because she could go ahead and weep without keeping one eye open for rats.

Peaches are steady but featureless at the present moment. Prunes evidence further firmness, while it is expected that all grades of raisins will be advanced either today or tomorrow. ## WINTERSBURG'S NEWS BUDGET

WINTERSBURG, Nov. 7.—Mrs. George Crane entertained very delightfully on Wednesday with an old-fashioned quilting party in honor of her aunt, Mrs. M. A. Null of Los Angeles, who is her house guest. Those invited arrived early in the forenoon and at once gathered around the quilt where they industriously sewed their very neatest and carried on pleasant conversation. The quilt was of tulip design, pieced by the hostess' mother. A chicken dinner with all the extras was served at 12 o'clock to which all present did ample justice. Those present were Mrs. Geo. Gearhart, Mrs. Mansell Roberson, Mrs. B. A. Farrar, Mrs. M. J. Barton, Mrs. Ethel Warner, Mrs. M. E. Clemans, Mrs. N. E. Dwyer, Rev. and Mrs. O. N. Oleson, Mrs. Alice Vail of Santa Ana, Mrs. Crane of Huntington Beach, Mr. W. A. Crane of Santa Ana, Mrs. Null, the guest of honor, and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Crane and daughter, Miss Mary.

The Halloween social at Bradbury's Hall last night given by the Epworth League, was largely attended by the Leaguers and their friends. The decorations were the symbolical black cat and jack-o'-lantern faces, together with products of the autumn season, which gave to the room an air of the harvest time. Bobbing for apples, outlying the "Black Cat," games, a witch or two by way of variety made the time pass quickly. Doughnuts, coffee and pumpkin pie were served before the merry gathering dispersed.

The M. E. Sunday school held its annual picnic at Anaheim Landing Saturday, 9 o'clock was the hour set to leave the church and the hay wagon driven by James Haptonstall was soon filled to overflowing with the merry boys and girls. Several auto and survey loads followed, a few persons went by jitney to Huntington Beach, thence by street car and the Y. M. C. A. boys went on their bicycles. An excellent picnic dinner with hot coffee was served at noon, after which all who wished were taken for a boat ride. During the afternoon a series of sports was carried on, the winners being as follows: Wallace Winters, 100 yard dash for boys; Loya Wells, 50 yard running race for all under 10 years old; Ethelene Culver, 50 yard running race for all over 10; Minnie Grana, sack race for girls; Minnie Grana, tug of war (two captains chosen); Mrs. James Haptonstall, nail driving contest for women; Mrs. A. B. Crane, walking race for officers and teachers; Mr. James Haptonstall, running broad jump; Prof. H. O. Ensign, horseshoes. Before starting for home boxes of the finest apples were brought from some secret hiding place and strange to say, they did not remain in the boxes very long. The chairman of the committees were: Mrs. A. B. Crane, dinner; James Haptonstall, place and transportation; Rev. O. N. Oleson, entertainment, who deserve mention for their excellent work in making the day a happy one for all present, and are hereby given the hearty thanks of the church and Sunday school.

Mrs. Frank Ulrich, who underwent a serious operation at the Santa Ana hospital last Sunday morning, is reported to be doing nicely and may be allowed to return home in about ten days.

L. E. Rush made a business trip to Los Angeles yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Moore are the happy parents of a little girl who arrived Saturday morning. This is their second daughter, and although she is without a name as yet, one will be given her as soon as one worthy enough is discovered.

The first quarterly conference of the year will be held at the M. E. church Saturday, Nov. 11, at 7:30. Dr. H. I. Rasmus, the new superintendent of the San Diego district, will preside.

John Clemans, of Chino, who has been visiting the home folks for a few days, returned last night. He celebrated his sixteenth birthday on Saturday, also made merry with the picnic party of Sunday school folks.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Slater entertained a party of Los Angeles people over Sunday. Mrs. Etta Clay, mother of Mrs. Slater, Miss Jennie and Ralph Clay, her brother and sister, and Mr. Andy Magnuson.

There will be a musical and declamatory contest at the M. E. church tonight, beginning at 7:30. The contestants are Young Campaigners and everybody is invited to come out and hear the excellent program they have prepared. Mrs. A. H. Moore is in charge.

HOLTON, Kan.—The council of the Pottawatomie tribe held a powwow at the dance grounds of the reservation recently to consult a Chicago lawyer, J. G. Grossburg, on a proposal to sue the city of Chicago for the recovery by the tribe of the lake front.

The Pottawatomie Indians, Mr. Grossburg claims, own the Chicago Lake front. He asks the Indians to give him a retaining fee and a per cent of the judgment obtained and he will sue to recover the property, or rather continue the suit he already claims to have started. Supt. Snyder advised the Indians not to give him the lawyer the retainer, but to offer him a per cent of the judgment if he cared to prosecute the claim through the courts. The Indians acted on Mr. Snyder's advice.

They had agreed to pay Mr. Grossburg's expenses from Chicago to Kansas and return, and they raised this amount and let it go at that.

DRINK A GLASS OF REAL HOT WATER BEFORE BREAKFAST.

Says we will both look and feel clean, sweet and fresh and avoid illness.

Sanitary science has of late made rapid strides with results that are of untold blessing to humanity. The latest application of its untiring research is the recommendation that it is as necessary to attend to internal sanitation of the drainage system of the human body as it is to the drains of the house.

Those of us who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when we arise, splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, can, instead, feel as fresh as a daisy by opening the sluices of the system each morning and flushing out the whole of the internal poisonous stagnant matter.

Everyone, whether ailing, sick or well, should, each morning, before breakfast, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast. While you are enjoying your breakfast the phosphated hot water is quietly extracting a large volume of water from the blood and getting ready for a thorough flushing of all the inside organs.

The millions of people who are bothered with constipation, bilious spells, stomach trouble, rheumatic stiffness; others who have sallow skins, blood disorders and sickly complexions are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone a pronounced crank on the subject of internal sanitation.

3 HURT IN L. A. AS SHOTS FLY AT DANCE

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 7.—Fighting with guns and clubs, Lieut. Johnson and Detectives James, Houston and Davidson of the flying squadron early today rescued Patrolman A. A. Watson, coaxed, from a mob of several hundred negroes who were attending a dance in the Labor Temple.

In the battle, Patrolman Watson was badly beaten and slashed with a razor and two of the negroes were so beaten that treatment at the receiving hospital was necessary.

The fight is alleged to have started when Watson attempted to arrest Arthur Bell for annoying a woman. Bell and several of his friends attacked Watson, who was forced to fight for his life. A free-for-all battle soon ensued on the slippery dance floor. The members of the flying squadron rushed to the scene.

They fought their way to the rescue of Watson and arrested and handcuffed Bell. Then they had to force their way out of the hall with drawn revolvers, for the dancers were crying threats of violence at them and several tried to assault them with razors and fists.

The mob followed the officers down-

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Universal military training, advocated by all army experts, continues to be one of the chief topics in army circles, where the hope is openly expressed that the house and senate military affairs committees will get together at the earliest possible moment and outline a constructive army program, the lack of which constitutes the real weakness of the United States at the present time, according to officers said to be in close touch with the war department.

Strong support of the proposition of universal military service after the manner of the Swiss or the Austrians will be given in the next congress in all probability. It looks now as if this issue of whether the country should have universal training will be the foremost military problem in congress, either until there is legislation for it or a definite refusal to enact such legislation.

Senator Chamberlain of Oregon, chairman of the senate military affairs committee, has announced that he will bring the matter up in December. The chairman is strongly in favor of universal training. But it is understood that for lack of time it will be impossible to get the measure considered by both houses in the short December session and it is believed that the proposition will therefore go over to become one of the most important problems confronting the new congress next spring, the members of which, for the most part, will be newly elected.

One of the arguments that is being used for universal training is that the volunteer system has proved unsuccessful and a failure in that examination of young men applying for enlistment either in the regulars or the guards disclose a surprising number of narrow, flat chests. It is being urged that for athletic reasons alone the boys and young men of the land ought to get back to the out-of-doors enough to build up their bodies. Added to that, the enlistment service division declares that the big majority of applicants are almost entirely unfamiliar with firearms—even of smaller caliber, and it is pointed out in this connection that it takes Great Britain three months to train her raw recruits in the use of machine guns alone.

FOR POSTMASTER TESTS

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—President Wilson declared himself as favoring legislation providing for the appointment of postmasters of all classes through competitive civil service examination, in a letter to the National Civil Service Reform League which was made public. The duo ran to a waiting automobile about a block from the Phillips home and whirled away at a "50-mile clip. Modie and Sweezy pursued them, driving their machine to the limit, but the thieves had a long lead, aided by the darkness, darted into an alley downtown and left the officers in the lurch.

BOTTLES SUNSHINE FOR WINTER FUEL

FOSTORIA, Ohio—Albert Barnes, machinist of this city, has announced that he had heated his house all last winter and that washing and ironing had been done with "bottled sunshine."

He explains that he stored heat from the sun's rays by means of a contrivance which collected the heat and conveyed it to a barn which he had remodeled into a structure not unlike a fireless cooker.

According to Barnes, the barn is filled with blocks of artificial stone, each carefully packed in pressed straw. These, he said, held the heat caught on a large concrete surface of bowl shape.

ATLANTA, Ga.—An ax and two razors were used in a four-cornered fight in the rear of 80 Griner street. Although each of the men was cut to shreds, the hospital authorities believe there is a slim chance for their recovery. All were under the influence of whiskey.

Clifton Haynes suffered a severed jugular vein. Spencer Caldwell's leg was broken from a blow from the ax. Mary Haynes and Martha Hart were cut badly on the face and breasts.

BOTTLES SUNSHINE FOR WINTER FUEL

FOSTORIA, Ohio—Albert Barnes, hostess of this city, has announced that he had heated his house all last winter and that washing and ironing had been done with "bottled sunshine."

He explains that he stored heat from the sun's rays by means of a contrivance which collected the heat and conveyed it to a barn which he had remodelled into a structure not unlike a fireless cooker.

According to Barnes, the barn is filled with blocks of artificial stone, each carefully packed in pressed straw. These, he said, held the heat caught on a large concrete surface of bowl shape.

"There's no meter on the sun," said Mr. Barnes, "and I don't expect to pay another cent for heat the rest of my life."
